PLUGGING ALONG WITH THE WAR CAMPAIGN

The United War Workers' Campaign in the city and county is plugging along, in the words of one of the workers yesterday. The campaign so far is about $12,000 short of the filling out the quota, and the workers are urging increased subscriptions and more of them. Many have not subscribed to the extent they should have done. Millersburg had not reported to the headquarters here yesterday, but a statement to THE NEWS late yesterday afternoon by Mr. M. Peale Collier indicated that with the figures he had at hand the county would have to raise about $12,000 more to get over the top in the campaign. Workers are still busy in all the precincts in the city and county, and it will be to the everlasting shame of Bourbon county if their efforts are not rewarded by the very last dollar that is needed and then some.

The United War Work drive deserves the very highest commendation. Among the evident providences of the war is the unity of the nations and peoples with respect to pure religion. Sectarianism, like political partyism, can never again possess the human heart as in the past. Not only should politics be adjourned, but sectarianism also, during this drive.

The advent of the Y. M. C. A. has put among the French soldiers a more destructive of prejudice than the tank was destructive to the Hun. At first both the Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus were misunderstood. To-day they co-operate like two good Samaritans, exemplifying goodness and kindness and the two great Golden Commandments. The Jews, too, who fought bravely and poured out millions of dollars in the war, are in this drive. They are enthusiastic in it and will do their part fully.

The fact that these seven organizations for the recreation, education and morale of the soldiers are united, at the request of President Wilson, and that all are to be accountable to the same supreme national authority, present one of the greatest opportunities that could be offered for the welfare of humanity. In view of the long time that must elapse before our boys come marching home; in view of the fruits of these agencies in the past; in view of the fervent appreciation which the soldiers express concerning them, and in view, also, of the splendid victory our soldiers and their allies have achieved, the amount asked for from Bourbon county ought to be gratefully and quickly be oversubscribed.

THE INFLUENZA SITUATION

The influenza situation in Paris and the county has very little in it of interest now to the general public save that the danger seems to have passed, and our people are beginning to fret under the restraint of a ban which they consider as no longer needed.

No new cases were reported yesterday, and the old cases are all getting along very nicely. It is to be hoped the local Health Board may see their way clear to lift the ban which has been in effect since October 9.

The situation is improving in the State, especially in the mountain section, where the plague has been prevalent in virulent form, and reports from other parts of the State give encouragement and promise of relief.

During the two months the influenza was epidemic in the United States it caused more than twice as many deaths as resulted from all causes among the members of the American Expeditionary Forces from the time the first American soldier landed overseas until the cessation of hostilities. Reports summarized up to last night indicated that more than 82,000 deaths resulted from influenza and about 45,000 deaths among the American forces.

A TOUGH CUSTOMER.

When it comes to "putting up a good front" Dave Franklin Freeman, a young colored man residing near Little Rock, certainly can claim the honors. Dave's good frontal region, a heavy cranial structure, saved him from instant death recently.

Like most adventurous youths who like to sport a little during the hunting season, Dave was getting ready Saturday afternoon to take a trip after bunnies. He was carelessly handling his loaded gun while showing how it should be aimed at a fleeing rabbit, and then showed how it should be pulled through a fence barrel first. In some manner the gun was discharged, the load from the shell striking Dave in the head. Part of his forehead, the frontal bone of his skull and part of the frontal lobe of his brain were blown away. He was hurried to the office of Dr. Henry, in North Middletown, where he was given prompt medical attention, and then brought to the Massie Memorial Hospital, in Paris. Despite his wounds, the boy was conscious and able to talk to those around him and seemed to be rallying from the shock. Dr. Henry regards it as one of the most remarkable cases he has come across lately, and says it certainly has but few equals in medical history.

In the County Court, Crusee Anderson, who had been appointed by Judge Batterson, to administer on the estate of Lucy Anderson, qualified for the position by furnishing bond with Mr. John L. Soper as surety.

ARRANGING FOR THE BIG VICTORY CELEBRATION.

If the plans now being matured for holding a big peace celebration in this city do not go awry, Paris will witness one of the biggest times in its history, or at least in its later day history. An enthusiastic meeting of the promoters and the various committees, together with a number of ladies of the city who are interested in the big event, was held at the court house Sunday afternoon, when a number of plans were made, and the committees instructed as to their duties. It has been arranged to hold the big celebration on Thursday, November 28.

Merchants and residents will be asked to decorate their stores and homes in honor of the occasion, and everything will be done to make the people of the county enter fully into the spirit of the occasion and have a real good lively old time in celebrating the end of the world-war. There will be a monster parade, the details of which have not yet been fully worked out. Special features of this parade will be a detachment of the Students' Army Training School and the S. A. T. C. band, from Camp Buell, Lexington, and mothers of boys in the service. For this latter every mother in the county who has a boy in the service is earnestly requested to notify Mrs. M. H. Dalley, Chairman of the committee as to her intention to take part in the big parade. The boys who come from Camp Buell to help in the celebration will be entertained at the homes of Paris people by two, being escorted to their place by Red Cross girls. Invitations have been extended to surrounding towns to send delegations to take part in the big event, the biggest ever.

It is planned to have the jollification begin at three o'clock in the afternoon, when the parade will take place, and another big parade at night, followed by a display of patriotic fireworks and other doings. Fuller details of the program for the day's celebration will be given out for the public as they are perfected. Rudolph Davis will be Grand Marshal of the day, with the following assistants, J. O. Marshall, J. Walter Payne, John F. Davis, Chas. Green, Robt. P. Walsh, Fay Ardery, Ernest Martin, Wm. G. McClintock, Dr. H. M. Hamilton.

FOLLOWING PEACE NEWS, HERE IS SOMETHING GOOD!

Regulations requiring householders and bakers to purchase 20 per cent. of substitute with purchase of wheat flour have been withdrawn by the Food Administration.

Substitutes already purchased and for which millers and dealers or bakers do not find a ready sale will be purchased by the grain corporation of the food administration under plans now being formulated. The coarser grain being used as flour substitutes will be placed on the market as animal feeds, of which there is a shortage.

Although wheat bread may now appear on the American table without restriction, the food administration announced it will continue to advocate the conservation of flour.

The relation of wheat regulations, which have been in effect in various forms since last January 28, was ascribed directly in a statement issued by the food administration to the military armistice. It was pointed out that the Mediterranean sea is now safe for commercial transport and that the European nations can draw again on the large wheat supplies in India and Australia. With cargo ships released from military service, it was said, it also will be possible to tap accumulated supplies in the Argentine.

Increase in the best sugar producing States and in the cane producing territory of Louisiana, of the household sugar allotments from three pounds to four pounds monthly per capita has been ordered by the food administration, effective December 1. At the same time public eating places in these sections will be permitted to increase their consumption from three pounds to four pounds for every 90 meals served.

For the remainder of the country, it was stated, the allotments of three pounds monthly per capita for households and three pounds per ninety meals for public eating places will be continued for the present, at least.

The increase for sugar producing States was granted, the food administration announced because of the lack of cargo space for overseas shipment with insufficient storage facilities in this country.

OHIO CITY VISITED BY $250,000 FIRE.

Fire destroyed the heart of the business district of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, Friday morning, with more than $250,000 loss. A dozen mercantile houses and their contents are a total loss.

The $500,000 Wyandotte county court house was damaged by smoke. Ten persons were caught under a falling brick wall and two were injured probably fatally.

The fire was discovered at 1 o'clock and is thought to have originated in the Bon Ton bakery, the rear of which was found ablaze.

GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE TO EXPLAIN FARM LOANS.

The aims and plans of the Federal Farm Loan Bureau will be explained in an address to the farmers of Bourbon county, on Saturday, November 30, by a Government representative, if arrangements now under way are completed and the influenza ban lifted by that time.

Mr. Myron A. Waterman, of Kansas City, Mo., special assistant in charge of the organization work of the Bureau, was in Paris yesterday making preliminary survey of the work and arranging for the address, which he will deliver. Due notice will be given through the papers of the city of the time, the place and other arrangements as soon as they are perfected.

The plan of the Land Bank system is that actual farmers can borrow fifty per cent. of the value of their farms and twenty per cent. of the insurable investments, to the extent of from $100 to $10,000 at five and one-half per cent. interest and on from five to forty years' time, payments to be made on an amortization plan, and any part or all of the loan may be repaid after five years at any payment period.

The rate of interest farmers pay the bank will always be at the minimum and under no circumstances can it exceed six per cent., and the system will give land values some stability. All broad visioned forward looking bankers and merchants and professional men are whole-heartedly assisting in extending the usefulness of the Federal Land Bank.

This meeting should be very generally attended by farmers of character and industry, who have small capital, for this system provides a way whereby tenants may become landowners. Mr. Waterman will answer any and all questions that may be asked him about the plans and the objects of the Land Bank.

CALL ISSUED FOR BANK STATEMENTS.

State Banking Commissioner Geo. G. Speer has issued a call on all State banks for a statement of their condition as of November 15. Several of these will be found in this issue of THE NEWS.

CENSUS BUREAU ISSUES LEAF TOBACCO REPORT.

Under the provisions of the Censustrill law, passed by Congress in 1912, the Bureau of Census has just issued its quarterly report showing the stocks of leaf tobacco held by the manufacturers and dealers in the United States on October 1st.

This report is of unusual interest as the market for Kentucky tobaccos will very shortly open. The total stock of all tobaccos in the United States is practically the same as last year, showing that during war times, even with foreign shipments largely curtailed on account of shortage of ships, that consumption of tobacco has been equal to production, which means a healthy condition, especially so far as the tobacco grower is concerned.

The situation as to the Burley crop is especially favorable to the grower, as the manufacturers of this type have 17,000,000 pounds less of Burley than they had a year ago and their holdings of Burley leaf are less than they have been since the Censustrill law was passed six years ago. The total holdings of Burley are only 190,000,000 pounds and every one knows the crop of Burley this year will be very light. The Burley market, based on supply and demand should be higher than ever in the history of the market. With a light crop grown this year and with holdings less than usual, the buyers of Burley should be eager to make a very high market. The average crop of Burley is about 250,000,000 pounds and the Censustrill law report shows that the manufacturers have less than a year's supply of Burley in stock.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION FOR THANKSGIVING DAY.

President Wilson, in a proclamation issued Sunday to the press, designated Thursday, November 28, as Thanksgiving Day. The President said that this year the American people had special and moving cause to be grateful and thankful. Complete victory, he said, has brought not only peace, but the confident promise of a new day, as well, in which justice shall replace force and jealous intrigue among the nations.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Letters have been received here from Hord Lovell, who is in France, stating that he is in fine health, and likes the country and the people very much.

Private Robt. O. Hertig has returned to his army duties at Camp Sheridan, in Alabama, after a fifteen-days' visit in Paris on furlough. He was called here by the death and burial of his two brothers, who both died of influenza.

Raymond Connell, Fithian Arkle and Lawrence Soper, all of Paris, members of the Army Training School Corps at Camp Buell, Lexington, are recovering from recent severe attacks of the Spanish influenza. Reports from the Camp yesterday showed improvement in the influenza situation.

Capt. J. T. Brown, who has been stationed at Camp Greene, near Charlotte, South Carolina, in the medical branch of the service, is in Paris on a furlough. Capt. Brown is a member of the medical staff in the Base Hospital, at Camp Greene, having volunteered for that duty early in the summer.

In a letter to his wife, at Georgetown, Mr. Matt Turney, formerly of Paris, who is now driving an army auto-truck in France, he tells of the great work the Y. M. C. A. is doing there for the boys in the army, and with what heartiness and cheer the Y. M. C. A. workers are greeted everywhere along the lines.

Lieut. Lawrence Lavin is at home on a short furlough from Camp Gordon, in Georgia, for a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lavin, and family, on Walker avenue. Lieut. Lavin is bayonet instructor at Camp Gordon, and is expecting orders soon to go overseas for intensive work in the army lines.

The suggestion has been made that instead of having a third peace celebration that would cost several hundred dollars; that a movement be started at once to raise a fund of $1,000 contributions for the erection in the court house yard of a suitable memorial tablet to commemorate the names of the Bourbon county sailors and soldiers who have "made the supreme sacrifice."

Capt. Jos. E. Torrence, of Cynthiana, who went to France at the same time as did Lieut. Reuben Hutchcraft, of Paris, has returned to the Base Hospital, at Cape May, N. J., after a visit to his wife in Cynthiana. Capt. Torrence was severely wounded in the battle of Soissons, on July 17, and returned from overseas about six weeks ago. He thinks another operation will be necessary on his shattered arm to give him control and use of his hand.

Seaman A. O. Robertson, of Millersburg, is in Bourbon county on a furlough, visiting relatives. Robertson, who has been in France for some time, has been transferred to Norfolk, Va., on special duty. He was on the transport Covington, when it was torpedoed by a German submarine last July. He had made six trips overseas before that event. Robertson says "Buddie" James, who was also on the Covington, is making a sure-enough salt sea sailor.

Postmaster J. Walter Payne has received the following bulletin from Adjutant-General Heistand, with the request that it be given the widest possible publicity. Postmaster Payne accordingly turned it over to THE NEWS, with a request that it be published in the "In The Service" column, because, you know, everybody reads that. The bulletin follows:

"The Infantry Officers' Training School, which was to be held at Camp Fremont, California, beginning December 1, 1913, is cancelled.

"The advertising matter, etc., recently sent you with reference to that camp, should be torn down and destroyed, and you are requested to inform applicants seeking information that the school has been called off and the candidates are no longer desired.

"H. O. S. HEISTAND, Adjutant General, Department Adjutant."

Hugh Campbell, formerly of Paris, where he was in the employ of the Power Grocery Co., and later with E. F. Spears & Sons, has been promoted to the rank of Captain in the U. S. Service. Capt. Campbell is now stationed in the Depot Quartermaster's Department at Jeffersonville, Indiana, one of the largest in the United States. In a letter to THE NEWS Capt. Campbell says:

"Would thank you to change my address from 427 East Maple street, this city, to that of 115 Clark street. No cessation here due to end of hostilities, and it appears that supplies of certain character will still be shipped, including relief material for the Belgians.

"Presume that Bourbon will make an excellent showing in the War Work fund. Have noticed that in other campaigns, very favorable mention has been made by other than local papers about the response and patriotism of Bourbon county, Kentucky, and it makes a fellow feel good to hail from such a place.

"CARRY ON" KEYNOTE OF THE RED CROSS.

"Carry On" is the keynote of a Red Cross statement of policy just issued by National Red Cross headquarters in view of the apparent nearness of peace with Germany.

The statement which says, "but even with peace let no one suppose that the work of the Red Cross is finished," was read by General Manager George E. Scott, of the Red Cross at a National Red Cross conference at Chicago and was telegraphed to Lake Division headquarters for the information of the thousands of Red Cross workers in the States of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. The statement reads:

"On February 10th, last year, nearly six weeks before the United States declared war, the National Red Cross Headquarters advised its chapters to prepare for war. That which followed in the records of the Red Cross in helping to win the war and to relieve the suffering growing out of it, constitutes something of which every American citizen has a right to be proud. Every Red Cross worker must feel a sense of satisfaction in having had a share in it all."

"The moment now has come to prepare for peace. Actual peace may come at any moment; it may be deferred some time. But until peace is really here there can be no relaxation in any Red Cross effort incident to active hostilities."

"But even with peace, let no one suppose that the work of the Red Cross is finished. Millions of American boys are still under arms; thousands of them are sick and wounded. Owing to a shortage of shipping it may take us a year or more to bring our boys from France. But whatever the time, our protecting arms must be about them and their families over the whole period that must elapse before normal peace life can be resumed."

"Our soldiers and sailors are enlisted until the commander-in-chief tells them there is no more work for them to do. Let every Red Cross member and worker, both man and woman, show our soldiers and sailors that to care for their health, wealth and happiness we are enlisted for no less period than they."

"The cessation of hostilities will reveal a picture of misery such as the world has never seen before, especially in many countries which cannot help themselves. The American people will expect the Red Cross to continue to act as their agent in repairing broken spirits and broken bodies. Peace terms and peace conditions will determine how we can best minister to the vast broken areas which have been harrowed by war and for this great act of mercy the heart and spirit of the American people must continue to be mobilized through the American Red Cross."

"On behalf of the War Council, we accordingly ask each member of our splendid body of workers throughout the land, to bear in mind the solemn obligation which rest upon each one of us to carry on. We cannot abate for an instant in our efforts or our spirits. There will be an abundance of work to do and even at the moment of peace, let no Red Cross worker falter."

"Our spirit must now call us to show that not the roar of cannon, nor the blood of our people alone directs our activities, but that a great people will continue to respond greatly and freely to its obligation and opportunity to serve."

TIME IS EXTENDED FOR MAILING CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The date for mailing Christmas packages to the soldiers and sailors overseas has been extended from November 20 to November 30, according to information received here by Mrs. J. Walter Payne and other members of the Red Cross Chapter. Labels can be had from the headquarters of the Red Cross Chapter, on the ground floor of the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Co.'s building at the corner of Main and Broadway. The labels will be sent from the Lake Division headquarters at Cleveland, Ohio, as long as they last, to the Chapters desiring them, upon request. Those who have received labels from soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force, and have lost them, or those who have not been able to procure them, may get them from the local Red Cross Chapter.

Positively no packages will be accepted without the necessary label, and only one package may be sent to each soldier. These labels may be procured on and after November 21.

OUR SAILORS, "THE GOBS."

One of the passions which sway the "gobs" is to have "tailor-made" liberty blues. By "liberty blues" is meant the sailor's best uniform. Endless are the attempts to make these "a little different"—attempts, alas, which invariably end in reprimand and disaster. The dernier cri of sportiness is to have a right hand pocket lined with starboard green and a left hand pocket lined with port red. From the December Red Cross Magazine.

Captain, but my duties here still remain the same for the present.

"Best regards."
"HUGH CAMPBELL."

Cassocks and Khaki.

There are over twenty-five thousand Catholic priests in the French battle line.

The regimental chaplains are there,
of course, and as France is a Catholic country there are two priests to every Protestant chaplain and Jewish Rabbi. But thousands of the priests serve in the ranks.

There is a strategic advantage in this. When it is necessary to send a soldier on a dangerous mission unmarried men are at a premium, and the priest offers himself without feeling any of the compunction that might daunt the family man. There will be no orphans left destitute if he does not return.

Often a brother priest starts on the same mission an hour or two later, to guarantee its execution. While not a foregone conclusion, an accident to the first volunteer is more than a probability. And by virtue of their profession it is taken that both these gamblers have an outlook in life—and eternity—which invests them with a certain aloofness. They have cooler heads and steadier nerves than any gamster at the roulette board could show. To them death is a trivial incident; it neither brings nor ends the progress of experience. It merely marks a change.

Incidents of this kind become so common during defense of Verdun that they went unnoticed. Even we, had we been there, would hardly have remarked it in days so crowded with thrills. But as we take the questionnaire and read the section that deals with the study and profession of divinity, we realize more fully the degree to which French man-power has been strained. We could hardly find such a section in a French document of any kind.

But the French write no epics on this feature of the war. When a regiment is changing ground it is common to see a priest invite a Rabbi to precede him. "After you, sir," he says
"the Old Testament before the New."
When Protestants, Catholics and Rabbi stand hourly in the face of death and select such a time to kid each other about questions of doctrine that separate them, we who have not yet faced the music would do well to take stock of ourselves.
We should at least pause before claiming exemption in a questionnaire.

This Yank private has often seen his Holy Joe (regimental chaplain) steal over the top to drag in a wounded rifleman. But there are many of us who claim, on the slenderest justification, to be engaged in "essential occupations" who could hardly expect the above-mentioned Yank to class us with Holy Joe.

"After The War."

According to the reconstruction resolutions before Congress, it appears that no plans have yet been seriously considered for the demobilization of our army and navy after the war. The problem as to what is to be done with these men must be solved.

Secretary Lane, of the Interior Department, appears to be the only Cabinet officer who has come forward to announce a plan of betterment for our soldiers when they return from the battle fronts. Nevertheless it is a fact that practically every department and bureau of the Government has been developing ways and means toward reconstruction, and they will all be put forward. Secretary Lane, in a letter to the President, recalls that following the Civil War the soldiers went upon the homestead land which was thrown open to entry. Congress is asked to get busy upon a plan that has been outlined by him to prepare government lands, to supply drainage and other important and extensive improvements that will be necessary before land in great quantities can be made available. At the close of the Civil War this was an agricultural rather than a manufacturing nation, and it is impossible to forecast the percentage of soldiers who will go upon farm land. It will be necessary to provide employment for five million men and to transfer millions of war workers into employment in civil life.

There is in process of completion war orders amounting to billions of dollars, and when a declaration of peace comes most of these will necessarily be cancelled immediately.
Congress is beginning to pay attention to these problems which will entail great losses to manufacturers—running into amounts aggregating billions of dollars, and the adjustment of which will create a situation of uncertainty that will exist for years to come. "Intimately connected with the question of labor is the one relating to social welfare," declared one of the Senators, who added that the European countries have taken steps, nationally, relating to welfare questions; for example, the provision for old age pensions, life insurance and other similar matters.

As To Tips.

The tip has no place where labor is recognized as honorable service. It is a survival of the old master and servant days, when gratuities by persons to the manner born were given as a reward to severity. The tip goes always from a superior to an inferior, never from servant to master.
It is not a recognition of service, for the inferior never tips the superior for service rendered. That would be considered an insult.

This debasing custom, once common to all labor, has been eliminated from all but a few branches of service, such as waiters, porters, barbers and servants. The practice is so generally despised that attempts have been made to legislate it out of existence. But that is a wrong use of the law-making power, and will not, without co-operation of tiptak-ers, cure the evil.

The victim of the system must be reached. He must be shown that even acceptance of the tip does not increase his wage, for as the gratuities go up his wages go down. There are places where waiters and porters pay for the privilege of serving without wages. But, in addition to its being useless as a means of increased earnings it becomes a burden by fixing upon the recipient a badge of inferiority.

Protect Your Town.

Protect your own town and thereby show that you are in favor of protection. If protection is good for the nation it is good for the town. As townspeople we should favor our town above every other, as the growth and development of it is what will enhance the value of all property, both in and about it. Then buy your dry goods, groceries, hardware, furniture, etc., at home; have printing, your blacksmithing, your shoemaking done at home; patronize home in every instance that you can.
The success of our merchants and mechanics means new business houses and residences, additional demands for labor of various kinds. To the farmer a first-class town affords a better market for his grain, a better trading point, and such a town is bound to increase the value of his land. Unquestionably "in union there is strength." Let us protect our town.

How Domestic Consumers Can Save Gas

DON'T burn lamps in daytime.

DON'T keep hot water tank flame higher than necessary.

DON'T turn gas on for cooking until you have vessel ready for use; turn off immediately when cooking is completed.

DON'T use gas at high pressure and long flames. Short flames, if properly directed, consume less gas for the same cooking operation.

DON'T turn the gas high after cooking boils. After boiling begins, the same temperature can be maintained with smaller gas consumption.

DON'T keep rooms at over 68 degrees; lower temperature by turning down gas, not by opening doors and windows.

DON'T burn gas in a furnace without automatic thermostat control. Such an automatic device prevents overheating and waste of gas.

DOO'T burn gas in an ordinary coal furnace. It requires much more gas for the same heat than with a specially built furnace.

A. S. THOMPSON'S FARM AT AUCTION!

Wednesday, Nov. 27, '18

At 11 o'clock a. m., on the premises on the Clintonville pike, four miles from the city limits of Paris, Ky., we will offer at public sale, without reserve or by-bid, rain or shine, the splendid farm of Hon. A. S. Thompson, containing 337 1-2 acres, divided into three tracts of

RICH, PRODUCTIVE LAND

Mr. Thompson has decided to quit farming and move to Paris to engage in other business, and has instructed us to sell his farm, which is one among the best improved farms in the county. Fully one-half of the farm is in old Blue Grass sod and is now ready for

HEMP, TOBACCO AND CORN

TRACT NO. 1—CONTAINS 150 ACRES, MORE OR LESS, AND IS THE HOME PLACE OF MR. THOMPSON—Two-story pressed brick residence, with slate roof and stone foundation and full dry cellar under length of house. Has large reception hall, dining room, bed room, pantry, complete bath and kitchen on first floor and three bed rooms and hall on second floor. Cistern at door with force pump in kitchen, large front veranda and back porch, large buggy house easily converted into garage, smoke house, two hen houses, tool house, servant's house with two rooms, stock barn on solid concrete foundation, capacity 12 head, cistern attached, large concrete water tank, capacity 96 barrels and supplied from bored well with an inexhaustible supply of water for barn and residence; stock barn
No. 2 with two sheds, capacity 18 to 20 head of horses.

The farm is under splendid outside and inside fencing; 60 acres old blue grass sod, 55 acres in wheat, forty of which is sown to blue grass with splendid stand, 25 acres for corn, and also 10 in new grass. Two splendid ponds, some young timber, one full bearing peach orchard and full bearing orchard of mixed fruits. The house is equipped with hot water furnace in splendid shape, besides having natural gas for both light and heat under perpetual contract.

TRACT NO. 2—CONTAINS 75 ACRES AND ADJOINS TRACT NO. 1—Has five-room tenant house, smoke-house, buggy house, hen house, good ice house, and old-fashioned well; six-ton stock scales in good repair; good fencing, combined stock and tobacco barn, on stone foundation, 48x60, 20 feet to the eaves, racks and troughs to feed 130 cattle, and has tight loft floor; concrete silo that holds 270 tons and a California red wood silo that holds 160 eons; concrete water tank holding 55 barrels water, supplied by never-falling spring; 30 acres old blue grass sod, 18 acres in clover, remainder in high state of cultivation.

TRACT NO. 3—CONTAINS 112½ ACRES OF UNIMPROVED LAND AND IS ¾ MILES FROM TRACTS 1 AND 2, BUT FACES
ON THE SAME PIKE—Has beautiful building site and enough fine timber to build tobacco barn. It is well watered, with two pools and pond, and under good fencing; 60 acres old blue grass sod, every foot of which will grow fine tobacco or hemp. No tobacco was ever grown on this tract and it is a big money-maker for the lucky buyer.

TERMS—10% of purchase price in cash at hour of sale, or its equivalent, 23 1-3% March 1, 1919, when possession will be given and the remainder in one and two-year notes, bearing six per cent. interest.

LETTERS FROM BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

One of the most interesting letters that have come from across the Atlantic, that is, one of the most interesting that has come to our notice, is one from Sergt. Paul Brannon, of Paris, written from France in October to his father, Mr. Barney J. Brannon, in this city. The letter follows:

"Somewhere in France.
October 21, 1918.

"Dear Old Dad:—When, in the course of human events, it comes time to write to you we find we have lots to say, but not the time necessary to write the volume. Up to date I have not received a line from any of you, so I suppose my mail has been misplaced.

"To-day the sun is shining gloriously and there is real warmth in the air, the first similarity to good old Kentucky I have noticed. The sand, which covers the ground, has thawed a little, that is, it is a little bit dryer than it has been since our advent, and the walking is difficult. Mud is a disagreeable memory that makes sad rather a pleasant circumstance. This camp, it is said, is one of the largest in France, and is full of schools of almost every description. I have been attending the gas school for some time and am to leave this week for parts unknown to me at present for an advanced course. Have been assigned as instructor in gas warfare for this battery, and so, at least, Uncle Sam has placed me in my element, for my duty is to do lots of talking. I have never liked the Supply Sergeant job, and so I welcomed the new job with wild huzzas and everything. (I take this opportunity to insert here that French flies are occupying most of the air space in this room, and while they closely resemble our own English or house species, the latter are civilized compared to these foreign demons.)

"I wish you could have been with me in parts of the trip we made, in coming over here. Other parts would have been too much to wish on anyone. The trip across the deep, blue water was really blue all right and while none of us tested the depth, we were willing to take the geography's word for that. One of the boys made the remark that 'there must have been lots of rain in that country.' We had a couple of really rough days and the good old scow we were on did a few circus stunts, proved the theory of gravitation backwards and caused quite a bit of anxiety among the wounded. Just at the pause in one of the rolls, when bets were made on the outcome (meaning whether she would come back up or would complete the circle) one farmer got off one that has been adopted by the whole regiment. Everyone was gripping the rail or sliding down the deck, when this fellow yelled: 'Hold, her, Newt! She busted a surge-cle!' The same phrase is now applied to everything that it likely to get loose.

"After disembarking we were placed in what is termed a rest camp for a few days. The word, rest, surely can't have just the same meaning in England that it implies in America. Scotland is by far the most beautiful country I have seen, though it is just like it was the last time I was here. Two hours after crossing the border into England we were Red Crossed at Derby. Six hours after that we were Double Crossed at Romsey, a case of British rations. Am positive that the English expression, 'fed up,' is figurative in the extreme. Stayed in England two or three days. Arrived in La Belle France, we went to another 'rest camp, (brother to the first one.) After a few days we en-box-carred to our present location, where our fare is degrees better. With our own ill' old kitchen the cuisine is excellent and regular and on the American plan.

"I feel bound to give you my observations, as I proceed, on the American part. I can't understand how love for one's Fatherland, Motherland, Sisterland or any other land can remain inspired in anyone who has lived in the United States, and who has left it except the love of Yankeeeland. Would like to make the suggestion that a sure cure for Pro-Germanism would be to make the patient leave America for a while and then be allowed to return. Many a loyal Yankee could be made by this treatment. Don't get the impression that I am dying of homesickness or anything like that, but the good old U. S. A. has got it over these Old World countries so far that if it were not for this perfectly good war going on here I would not waste any time becoming homeward bound.

"Had some postcard pictures made yesterday with Frank Higgins. He it in Battery C. Will get them Wednesday and you may expect my next letter with illustrations. We have a great many Bourbon county boys in this outfit, and most of us have made an agreement to mention each other's names in our letters home, so that our respective families may hear from us oftener. I see Merritt Slicer and Bob Link almost every day. They have been made Sergeants and so they are now 'three-stripe men.' Harry Barlow, Cooper, McPherson, Harrison, Breeze, Hill, Emmett and Ernest Kiser, Mitchell, Patton, Renaker, Wachs, Wilson and Patrick are still with us, and are having the time of their lives. So, if you happen to see anyone interested in these boys tell them they are 'present or accounted for.' Have not seen Bob Hughes since coming here, but his organization is in this camp somewhere. Also, if you happen to see any prospective foreign service men, you might disillusionize them on one or two points, viz: Tell them that if they expect to be pioneers in this game, as we did, to forget it, for the 'genus American soldier' is exceedingly thick in these parts, so they won't be a curiosity. Another thing I found out through painful experience is that it never pays to pack extra accessories in your roll for a mole-hill becomes a mountain if they hike in England.

"Since inscribing the foregoing dashes have answered the one call that all soldiers love to answer, namely, mess call. We had a lovely supper served in one course, consisting of beans, stewed tomatoes, stewed something else, rice, bread and coffee. Not a bit too bad, as we used to say in Canada. Sometimes some of us go outside the camp, buy eggs from one of the French girls and take them into one of the shops, where we have them cooked. The eggs cost about six francs a dozen, and the cooking two francs, totalling an expenditure of $1.50 in real money. They make a nifty meal, though, and the treatment is made as often as the necessary francs are obtained.

"The French people I have talked to know a great deal more English than we do French. If we do happen to get over a word they can understand they shrug their shoulders and exclaim, 'Oh, la, la.' That is, the girls do. We never talk to the men. The shrug part is just the same as the cartoonists draw it. I can say a few things in French and by waving my arms am usually able to buy what I want. Sergt. Hill and I went down to get some eggs and not being able to find any bought some grapes and some cakes. As we looked around to see what else we wanted I noticed some small bottles of pickles on a shelf. Just what we wanted. Spending our last three francs we procured two bottles of the alleged pickles and returned to camp. We ate our grapes and cake on the way back, and reserved the pickles, so that we could eat them in front of the other fellows and tell them where they could buy some just like them. They clamored for more, as we expected. Would have gotten by all right if we had only looked in the bottles after opening them. I stuffed all the 'pickles' in my mouth that I could to avoid losing too many of them when the inevitable rush of the other fellows to get some of them came. So did Sergt. Hill. Somehow, they didn't taste like other pickles I had eaten. I turned to see if Hill was eating his and caught him looking at me. He had half a 'pickle' in his hand. The expression on his face must have been funny, for the mob didn't make the expected rush, but started to laugh. In our gas training we are taught to swallow often, and as a prospective instructor, I have made it a habit. So it happened that I executed the command before I meant to. What Hill had in his hand was the posterior half of a snail! The bottles were full of these pickled snails! Hill swallowed some of them; too, so I had a partner in misery for once. Moral—Always look into small bottles of 'pickles' bought in little French shops before eating any of them.

"To-day a cat came around the corner of our barracks and one of the fellows called, 'Kittie, kittie.' The cat ran to him and rubbed herself against his hobnails. He said it was the first French inhabitant that had ever understood a word he said. On the whole, it is not bad here and we are growing to like it more every day. The thoroughfare that passes in front of our barracks is a public roadway and lots of funny traffic goes by. Miniature donkeys pulling great clumsy, two-wheeled carts, teams of horses with yokes on their necks, big Liberty trucks, little caterpillar tractors—olden times side by side with the most modern conveyances. Each battery occupies one barracks and in front of each one the respective organization artists have built all sorts of things from sand, of different colors, rock and bits of coal. One I saw yesterday in front of D Battery's barracks is really a beautiful piece of work, being formed around a spread eagle and a double flag. The fellow who put it together was a landscape artist in civilian life, and lots of passers-by stop to have a look at his work.

"There is a lot of peace talk going round every day, but no one puts much stock in such rumors and the war goes on just the same. Nobody over here wants it to stop just yet, as we all want to get a crack at some of the Boches. Have heard that you have a great deal of Spanish influenza. Hope it hasn't been bad. The epidemic has subsided over here. All of us who knew Bishop Batterton were grieved to hear of his death. Haven't seen anyone I ever saw before since embarkation except an old Battery A man who was transferred out of the Battery in March for railroad work abroad. We were on a side track at Angers when he passed on a freight. In a minute everyone was yelling, and he looked around and beheld old Battery A itself, in France at last. He was overjoyed to see us all and almost missed his train in telling us 'Hello, Good bye and Good Luck.'

"Having exhausted my Corona ribbon will add this on the Royal machine. More mail came in to-night, but still no letter for me. One of the boys received a BOURBON NEWS and a Kentuckian-Citizen, and talk about a crazy lot of nuts, you should have seen us. We almost scrapped for that copy of THE NEWS and the other paper, too. The New York Herald and the London Daily Mail, which we get every day never had as much real news as those two papers held for us. Will send you a few copies of the Stars and Stripes, the American E. F. official paper.

"Well, as I wrote in the beginning of this letter, I lack time to write the most of what I have in mind, so will continue in another one later on. Love to all, and for Heaven's sake, write lots of letters.

"Yours in Everything,

"PAUL."

BACKACHE IS A WARNING.

Paris People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

Backache is often nature's most frequent signal of weakened kidneys. To cure the pains and aches, to remove the lameness when it arises from weakened kidneys, you must reach the cause—the kidneys. If you have pain through the small of your back, urinary disorders, headaches, dizzy spells, or are nervous and depressed, start treating the kidneys with a tested kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have been proved good and are especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney trouble for over 50 years. Read Paris testimony.

Floyd H. Rankin, grocer, Lilleston avenue and Lucas street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years and have been greatly benefited. At times I have suffered severely with kidney complaint. My back often pained me and was lame most all the time. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and greatly annoyed me. Whenever I have been this way, a box of Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to cure me of the attack in short order."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Rankin had. Foster—Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Conservation to Continue.

Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, Bourbon County Chairman of Woman's Committee of Council of National Defense, has been requested in a communication from Frank K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, to continue with vigor all branches of her work that tend toward conservation and under no circumstances to relax as the necessity for assistance through the many avenues open is even greater now than ever before.

Conservation methods have been successfully carried out under the stress of the war and to relax any effort now would not only be wasteful, but destructive of the good that has been done.

A CORRECTION—WE APOLOGIZE.

It seems that our newspapers are always making mistakes. Prof. James Milton Scott says that we were entirely wrong in an article in last issue, especially in regard to a stranger selling Paris people $25,000 worth of worthless automobile stock. The fact of the business is, so the Professor says, "that he only sold $14,000 worth, and that he got away with only one-fourth of that amount in cash." Wonder how he knows? We are sorry we so misrepresented the facts and gladly make the correction.

JUNIOR ORDER TO MAKE MEMBERSHIP DRIVE.

Bourbon Council Junior Order United American Mechanics is in the midst of a big membership drive, and so far have taken in about thirty applications. The campaign will close about the last of the present month. About the first week in December these candidates, with about thirty more, will be taken to Lexington on a special interurban car, where they will be initiated into the mysteries of the order by the Degree Team of Lexington Council No. 24.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF THE RED CROSS.

Please take notice that the annual meeting of the Bourbon County Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held to-morrow, Wednesday, November 20, at three o'clock p. m., in the County Court room in the court house. The meeting will be held for the purpose of electing an Executive Board for the consideration of and action on reports and the transaction of other important business as may properly come before the Chapter. Each member of the Chapter is earnestly urged to be present.

NEW MAIL SERVICE.

The new auto-truck mail service contemplated by the postoffice department for Central Kentucky was inaugurated yesterday. The truck carrying parcel post and first-class mail left Louisville early in the morning, coming to Danville, from there to Lexington, then to Paris and through Cynthiana to Cincinnati.

The truck reached Paris at 11:00 a. m. with a miscellaneous cargo of mail, including first-class and newspaper mail, as well as parcel post packages. Returning it arrived in Paris at 2:00 p. m., and arrived in Lexington at 3:15. This service will continue each day, and will be a great thing for the people along the rural routes.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

SEASON FOR COTTONTAILS AND BOB WHITES OPEN.

The hunting season for rabbit and quail opened in Kentucky, Friday. The rabbit season lasts until January 1, while the quail season ends on January 2. It has been suggested that sportsmen who would prevent the annihilation of quail give the birds a chance this year and kill only the minimum amount, as the severe weather of last winter did much toward depleting the tribe of Bob Whites. According to reports there are plenty of rabbits this season.

The limit for quail is twelve, and it is against the law to sell them. The duck season has been open since September 16 and will continue until December 31. A new Federal law prohibits hunters from shooting ducks from power boats. There will not be much trouble here on that score. It is unlawful to sell ducks, snipes, doves or any migratory birds. There are no restrictions to the killing or selling of rabbits in season.

The squirrel season has been open since July 1, and will last this year until December 16. Local dealers predict rabbits will be plentiful and cheap. But it remains to be seen whether the "combine" that operated in the rabbit counties last year will get in their work again.

BAD WEATHER RETARDS ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

Bad weather, following heavy rains, prevented the Southern Asphalt Company, of Louisville, yesterday from inaugurating its road improvement plans in this county. Arrangements had been perfected to resurface the Paris and North Middletown pike with an oil treatment, of which fifty per cent. was guaranteed asphalt.

This resurfacing treatment is to be applied for three consecutive years, when, the contractors say, the road will be equal almost to an asphalted road. The treatment costs approximately $800 a mile. The company has on hand ready for the work two tanks of oil, containing 20,000 gallons each.

The work will begin just as soon as weather conditions are favorable. The new resurfacing will make a splendid riding roadway surface. The work may be extended to other pikes in the county, if favorable weather permits.

CASE OF DIRE NEED FOR THE RED CROSS

The local Chapter Red Cross is making preparations to care for a mother who is suffering from tuberculosis and pneumonia. Anyone having old sheets or pillow cases for which they have no immediate need and will donate them to the Home Service division of the Red Cross, please let them know. Call Miss Helen Hutchcraft at the Home service headquarters over Cumberland phone No. 98, or call at her home, either phone. The Red Cross will be very grateful to anyone who will supply these articles, which are badly needed in a worthy cause.

A Powerful Nation Needs Strong Healthy Women.

A nation is no stronger than its women. Hence, it is the duty of every woman, whether young, middle age, or in advanced life to preserve her health. If you are sick and suffering don't wait until tomorrow but seek relief at once—today. Tomorrow your illness may take a chronic turn.

There is a remedy for almost every ill. Thousands have found Peruna to be that remedy as did Miss Clara Lohr of 21 N. Gold St., Grand Rapids, Michigan. She writes a friend: "I don't need Peruna any more. I am all well after taking six bottles. I weighed ninety pounds before I started and was poor and weakly. I had such a cough and spitting all the time that I never expected to recover. My friends gave me up. I could eat nothing. Now I can eat and weigh 135 pounds. I most thankfully recommend Peruna to my friends."

Miss Lohr's letter is an inspiration, a message of hope to suffering women. It tells you that you too may be strong and well and vigorous.

Peruna may be had in either liquid or tablet form. Ask your dealer. If you value health, do not accept a substitute. Dr. Hartman's World Famous Peruna Tonic is what you want. The Peruna Company, Dept. 79, Columbus, Ohio, also publish Dr. Hartman's Health Book. The book is free. Write for it. Your dealer will give you a Peruna Almanac.

TWO YEARS YET BEFORE SOLDIERS WILL COME HOME.

William Howard Taft, former President of the United States, warned the people in a speech in Chicago not to expect the soldiers back from France within two years, because of the policing which will fall on the shoulders of the United States.

"We have two million men in Europe," he said, "and they will be kept there for some time to do police work both in the country of our enemies and in Russia. All boats in which the men were sent across will be needed to carry food and supplies to both our allies and our foes."

John Harris, after whom Harrisburg, Pa., was named, organized the first corps of riflemen on the Susquehanna to protect the infant settlement from Indians.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

Nothing adds to the pleasures of a home, or makes life more worth living, than a well illuminated house.

BOURBON RED CROSS HAS SPLENDID RECORD.

After about seventeen months of faithful service the managers of the local Surgical Dressings Department of the Red Cross received orders Friday to stop work, and to hold all unused supplies until further notice.

Thus has closed one of the most useful branches of the war service, and those who have labored so patiently, so loyally and so efficiently can now enjoy a rest with a feeling of satisfaction that their work has brought comfort and relief to many a weary, wounded and sick soldier far away from home and loved ones.

The local branch of the work was introduced here by Mrs. May Stoner Clay, who received her training at Chautauqua, N. Y., and Washington City. She organized a class among the women of Paris and Bourbon County and they have carried on the work since August, 1917, through winter's intense cold and summer's furious heat, never faltering nor failing. The local work has received the highest praise from headquarters, and lovingly and patiently their willing hands have made bandages, pillows, pneumonia jackets, pads, and every other hospital or convalescent appliance that was required, meeting every request and filling every quota swiftly and specifically.

The work has brought together women in all walks of life, and friendships have been formed and lives have been brought in touch with each other that otherwise would have drifted farther and farther apart.

Too much praise cannot be accorded to Mrs. H. Clay Howard, who has been in charge of the work from the beginning, and who by her charming manner and beautiful spirit has so directed the affairs that not a ripple or a particle of friction has marred the harmony which has prevailed from the beginning to the close of this labor of love.

Six large boxes of finished work were shipped Friday. It was not possible to obtain a complete statement of all the work accomplished in this department, but it would make a chapter that would be inspiring.

The Red Cross Sewing rooms will continue open, and the kind-hearted Christian women will make garments for refugee women and children.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Do not imagine that because other cough medicines failed to give you relief that it will be the same with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Bear in mind that from a small beginning this remedy has gained a world wide reputation and immense sale. A medicine must have exceptional merit to win esteem wherever it becomes known.

A CHILD HATES OIL. CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With your children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full direction for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. (adv)

ENGLISH PAPER GIVES AMERICANS GREAT PRAISE.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—In praising the work of the American expeditionary force, in an editorial to-day, the Morning Post says:

"Of the gallant and decisive deeds on the western front not the least conspicuous appear to have been the achievements of the American army in the critical Meuse sector. At any other moment those achievements would have been certain of deserved celebration."

"The American troops, only newly trained, inheriting no long military tradition and molded by an iron-bound system, have faced and have overcome the pick of the German legions. The cost was heavy, but the result was amazing."

"In this country we have never doubted as to how the American soldier would prove himself in the field, but it is not too much to say that the most confident expectations have been surpassed. The rapidity and thoroughness with which General Pershing's men adapted themselves to the highly specialized conditions of modern warfare have been a revelation. Indeed, in their own phrase they made good and lost no time about it."

"When the story is written of the last fateful days of the war it will be recognized that the part played by the men from the United States has been neither the least honorable nor the least onerous."

CLEANSES YOUR HAIR MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL, THICK, GLOSSY, WAVY

Try This! All Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed. (adv)

CENSORSHIP SOON TO BE LIFTED FROM ALL NEWS.

Abandonment of all censorship on news, including withdrawal of the voluntary censorship request under which American newspapers have been operating since the United States entered the war, will be recommended to President Wilson soon by George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information. Mr. Creel also said that the domestic activities of the committee will be discontinued the last of this month. This was taken to include publication of the official bulletin and the disseminating of news from the various government departments.

Work of the foreign division will be continued temporarily.

GREATLY BENEFITED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y.

KENTUCKY CROP REPORT AS OF NOVEMBER 1, 1918.

The issuance of the November crop report is delayed a few days purposely so that the farmers' estimates on yields can be made as final on corn and tobacco, neither of which crops is entirely housed.

The fall has been most seasonable. The drouth was broken and there has been sufficient rainfall to start the fall sown grains. Pastures are consequently also in good condition and the prospects for wheat crop for 1919 are most excellent. The area of wheat sown is increased and shows at 114 per cent., which means an increase over last year's acreage of 12 per cent. Condition of same is given at 97 per cent. Wheat seedling is still in progress in some localities. In many localities more rye is being sown, acreage for the State being given at 95 per cent., and condition of same at 95 per cent., which shows a much better prospect for this crop as compared with 1917. Barley acreage is 89 per cent., and condition is given at 95 per cent. The fall grain crops are in good condition and the outlook is most favorable both as to acreage and condition.

Corn crop is light. The drouth this year injured the corn crop very materially. Some of the late corn is coming out better than it was expected. The yield as a State average is 25 bushels per acre, which is 5 bus. per acre more than last year's average. This would indicate a yield of something like 97,500,000 bushels for the entire State. Corn husking is still in progress.

The average estimate on Burley tobacco gives a yield of 833 pounds per acre while Dark tobacco has an estimated yield of 855 pounds per acre. This is lighter in both instances than last year, but of good quality.

It is early to give an estimate on yield of hemp, but the preliminary estimate gives 906 pounds per acre.

A very light crop of potatoes is reported. The early crop was poor, but the late crop is much better. The yield as a State average is estimated at 71 bushels per acre, and sweet potatoes at 96 bushels per acre.

Pastures have improved and show a condition of 92 per cent. All classes of live stock are in good condition and the number on hand as compared with an average year shows as follows:

Horses—Number on hand 92 per cent; condition 99 per cent.

Cattle—Number on hand 91 per cent; condition 94 per cent.

Hogs—Number on hand 91 per cent; condition 94 per cent.

Sheep—Number on hand 89 per cent; condition 91 per cent.

Taken as a whole this month indicates that the average yield has been cut down, which is largely attributed to the drouth, but the fall has been favorable for sowing the grain crops and housing of corn and tobacco and considering the extreme shortage of labor, farm work is only in fairly good shape for the winter.

THE DOUGHNUT ENTERS THE HALL OF FAME.

(Private John Allen, in Leslie's.)
The humble doughnut, alias the cruller, alias the fried cake, alias the "staker," finally has won a niche among the illustrious in the Hall of Fame.

As long ago as the oldest ancestors among us could remember this more or less digestible bit of fried dough has occupied a distinct place among American foods, but, though it has survived many more pretentious offerings of the culinary art, it remained for the great war to give it opportunity to achieve the post of distinction it now holds.

And it gained this fond position only through the untiring efforts of the lassies of the Salvation Army to place it upon a pedestal, that all might gaze and render deserved homage.

Just as soon as this country declared war against the Huns the Salvation Army in the United States determined to play an important part in looking after our boys in the war zones, and arrangements quickly were made to send considerable forces of men and women to Europe to open canteens and minister to our men at arms in every possible way. Even in those early days the program of helpful endeavor was made to embrace the cooking of innumerable doughnuts and their distribution among our fighting boys, and later the "kind of pie which mother used to make" was added to the menu.

With this plan in view, it was obvious that the Salvation Army lassies sent abroad must be able to cook, and a qualification necessary to remain near the front was that the young woman must be able to turn out a certain number of doughnuts and pies a day. Three lassies—they work in shifts of three, one mixing, one cutting and one baking—must be able to turn out about 250 appetizing pies or about 2,500 doughnuts a day.

When the first detachment of lassies arrived near the firing lines and began to turn out doughnuts by the thousand the French soldiers stood about watching in amazement. The dexterity of the cooks they characterized as juggling, and "Le jongleur" was heard on every side. The American soldiers think it is the greatest fun to assist in cooking the doughnuts, and they carry wood and water and help mix dough.

As quick as the doughnuts leave the boiling lard and the pies come out of the oven they are handed to the boys in khaki, who always are waiting in lines at times three blocks long. A quarter of a pie is a cut. Rates are cheap. The lassies sell three big, fat doughnuts for about 9 cents, and the portions of pie also are within reach of the soldier's purse. At night the food is given away, for no money changes hands between sunset and sunrise.

TECUMSEH'S BATTLE FLAG TO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Kentucky Historical Society is to come into possession of the "battle flag" carried by Tecumseh's braves in the Battle of the Thames. It is a shot-torn and blood-stained British Union Jack, which was given to Edward Smith, of Detroit, in 1903 by William A. Ellis, of Sarnia, Ont., an Indian missionary, converted to Christianity by Mr. Smith's father-in-law, a Methodist minister.

Mr. Smith was in Stearns recently and while there received a message that his 16-year-old daughter Marjorie had been killed by an automobile as she was crossing the street to mail a letter to him. He wrote to State Forester J. E. Barton that he wished to present the flag in memory of Marjorie.

Tecumseh was allied with the British General, Proctor, and was defeated at the Thames, October 4, 1813, by Gen. Harrison and Col. Richard M. Johnson's Kentuckians; Tecumseh afterward being killed in a duel by Col. Johnson. The flag had been treasured ever since by Canadian Indians until it was presented to Mr. Smith.

WHAT THE RED CROSS HAS BEEN DOING.

More than a quarter of a million of articles, classed as hospital supplies, were provided by the Department of Military Relief, Lake Division for use in the recent epidemic of influenza and pneumonia, according to a partial report just made by Edward B. Greene, division director of Military Relief.

The statement that in these three military establishments the normal capacities of the base hospitals are for 4,290 patients and that at one period in the epidemic there were no less than 4,290 patients and that at one period in the epidemic there were no less than 16,167 cases of flu and pneumonia, makes it clear why the Red Cross was given the opportunity to supply the following for use at Sherman, Taylor and Harrison:

11,000 bed sheets;
11,000 towels;
50,000 masks;
7,000 wash cloths;
4,500 handkerchiefs;
13,100 pillow cases;
8,000 pajamas;
2,500 pillowcases;
100,000 paper napkins;
25,000 paper cups;
Medicines and medical supplies as needed.

This list does not include supplies sent by this Red Cross department for Camp Wright, McCook Field, Fort Thomas, Columbus Barracks and to the army vocational schools at Ohio State University, University of Indiana, Kentucky State University, Purdue University and the Indiana Deaf and Dumb Institute at Indianapolis.

Red Cross supplies made it possible to increase the capacity of the hospital at Harrison from one for 250 to one for 1,700 patients, in less than twenty-four hours. The Red Cross also arranged for the establishment of a diet kitchen at this hospital.

At Taylor the Red Cross house was converted into a quarters for nurses and a nearby building was transformed into quarters for the handling of relatives of men critically ill.

At Sherman more than 400 grief-stricken relatives of critically ill soldiers were fed daily by the Red Cross at a free canteen and for a time 100 One officer wrote as follows to a Red Cross house that normally provides sleeping quarters for twelve. Red Cross automobiles transported visitors back and forth between the base hospital and the Red Cross house without cost to the riders.

One officer wrote as follows to a member of the field staff of the Department of Military Relief at one camp:
"I wish to state to you and members of your staff on duty at the base hospital, the appreciation of the staff of this hospital for your faithful work during the period of the emergency which has just passed. The enormous task of handling thousands of visitors, the labor of the greatly increased correspondence, the tactful handling of the bereaved ones, the willingness displayed on all occasions, reflected much credit on your organization and personnel."

SURVEY PARTIES NEEDED BY CONSTRUCTION DIVISION OF THE ARMY.

The Construction Division of the Army is without doubt the most extensive organization of its kind in the history of the world. The approximate value of construction projects undertaken by this branch of the Government since the United States entered the war is one billion dollars. The figures representing the material used and the men employed are staggering. Two hundred and fifty thousand workmen have been under the control of the Division at one time.

Among the Division's present urgent needs are 50 chiefs of survey party at $2,700 to $3,000 a year; 50 transit men at $2,400 a year; 25 levelmen at $2,100 a year; 125 rodmen at $1,800 a year, and 50 topographic draftsmen at $2,100 a year. These positions are open to men only except the drafting positions, which are open to both men and women. All of the positions are in the civil, not military, service.

Persons interested should apply to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or to the secretary of the local board of civil service examiners at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Paul, St. Louis, New Orleans, Seattle or San Francisco.

Applicants will not be required to undergo a written examination, the examination being of the "nonassembled" type; that is, the ratings will be based upon education, training, experience and physical ability as shown by the applications and corroborative evidence. These positions offer an excellent opportunity for patriotic service, and the Civil Service Commission urges qualified persons to apply without delay.

UNCONSCIOUS HUMOR OF SOLDIERS' WIVES.

One of the duties of the officials of the War Risk Insurance Board at Washington is investigation into the complaints of women who, for some reason or other, have failed to receive their husbands' pay from the United States Government. These women know quite well what they want, but often have unconventional modes of expressing themselves. The following are bona fide extracts culled by a lady whose duty it is to examine such letters of complaint:

"I ain't received no pay since my husband has gone from no where."
"My husband has gone away from crystal palace. He got a few days furlow and has been on the mind sweepers."

"We have your letter. I am his grandfather and grandmother. He was born and brot up in this house according to your instructions."

"You have changed my little boy to a girl. Will it make any difference?"
"Will you please send my money as soon as possible as I am walking the streets of Boston like a bloody pauper."

AMERICAN SOLDIERS FIGHT HAND TO HAND.

"The most vivid description of hand-to-hand fighting I ever heard," writes Herbert Corey, the war correspondent, in Everybody's for November, "came from an American soldier who was at Cantigny and yet could recall no incidents at all. He painted a scene of utter, mad confusion, through which men ran and yelled and shot aimlessly, as it seemed. A German and an American running madly, heads down, met each other head on, breast to breast. They reeled from the shock, glared at each other for a moment and each ran on. A German ran howling through the foggy mist. His trench knife in his right hand was red and his arm was red to the shoulder. He tripped and fell."

"Then he sang," said the observer. "Just sat there in the middle of that madness and sang. Someone killed him."
"Other Germans ran away. He reported a curious optical illusion. 'The Germans seemed about knee high,' said he, 'and their legs seemed to pump up and down very rapidly, as in an old 'chase' film, and yet they did not make speed. Do you understand me? Their effort was prodigious but unavailing. Their clothes looked floppy, somehow. The Americans seemed about fifteen feet tall and advanced by huge leaps. I stood there and laughed like hell.'"

Do You Need Glasses?

Let us make a thorough, scientific examination of your eyes, based on ethical grounds, not to recommend glasses unless you need them. Ask yourself these questions: "Do I have headaches, nervous spells, drawn, tired eyes? Does type sometimes blur? Do I see spots before my eyes?" Answer fairly and squarely, for your own good, for over-strain repeatedly day by day will break down the delicate nerves and muscles of the eyes and irreparable injury may result. BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Mr. Matt Lair, near Paris, a daughter. Mrs. Lair was formerly Miss Hazel Huston.

—Near Millersburg, to the wife of Mr. Jack Long, a daughter. Mrs. Long was formerly Miss Hazel Morris, of near Paris. Mr. Long is in the service, stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor.

—To the wife of Mr. Eli Fisher, residing near Clintonville, a son.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon from the office of the Fayette County Clerk, in Lexington, to Mr. Roy A. Skillman, 25, and Miss Eva Mae Shumate, 21, both of Bourbon county.

FRATMAN-THOMASON.

—Mrs. Lillian Hopkins Fratman and Mr. A. B. Thomason, both former residents of this county, and now living in Lexington, were united in matrimony recently at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Mark Collis, in Fayette Park, Lexington.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate members of Rev. Collis' family. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thomason left for a short honeymoon trip. On their return they will be "at home" to their friends at the residence of Miss Lucy Collier, on North Broadway, in Lexington.

The bride formerly resided in the Little Rock vicinity, as did the groom. Mrs. Thomason has for several years held a business position in the office of Hamilton College, where she was universally esteemed for her many rare qualities of heart and mind. Mr. Thomason, who is a brother of Mr. W. A. Thomason, of near North Middletown, is a prominent member of the Fayette bar, and was recently the Republican candidate for Representative in the Legislature from the city of Lexington. He is in charge of the Lexington office of Talbott & Franklin, attorneys, who also have an office in Frankfort and Paris.

FARMERS' NATIONAL CONGRESS AT JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

In conjunction with the Farmers' National Congress, which will be held December 3-6, at Jacksonville, Fla., the National Farm Women's Congress will be held and reports from throughout the country show that a very large number of women will be present. Most of the delegates will bring their wives, which will give them the opportunity also to see a most interesting portion of Florida and Jacksonville.

Mrs. Howard W. Dexter, the General Chairman of the Women's Auxiliary, has appointed several committees to look after the entertainment for women visitors. These include a drive to all the interesting points around Jacksonville, also a unique cabaret and many other attractions. The Women's Division will have its headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce, where Jacksonville women will attend to all details looking to the comfort and pleasure of their visitors while in the city.

There are a great many things to be discussed during the coming event, which will be of particular interest to the women of the United States, and especially to those who are vitally concerned in the welfare of the home.

There is every indication that a large number of the nation's most distinguished women will be present, because of the character of the meeting, and the opportunity afforded to see Jacksonville and Florida, including the State Fair, which will be open and in full operation during the sessions of the Congress, and where some of the big events of the latter will be staged. The Jacksonville women are well organized to give a genuine Southern welcome to the women, who will attend the coming Congress.

DEATHS.

SONS.

—The funeral of Mrs. Amanda Sons, formerly of this county, who died at her home in Fleming county, Saturday, of pneumonia, was held yesterday afternoon at one o'clock, in the Paris Cemetery. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. W. L. Wyatt, of Winchester.

Mrs. Sons was the wife of Mr. J. M. Sons, and formerly resided near Austerlitz, in this county.

BEDFORD.

—The funeral of Mr. Frank P. Bedford, aged thirty-eight, who died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Maria Bedford, on Cypress street, in this city, Sunday morning, after a long illness of tuberculosis, was held yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. Services were conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. J. J. Rice, pastor of the Paris Presbyterian church.

Mr. Bedford was a well-known young farmer. For several years he had been overseer on the farm of Mr. Thomas Henry Clay, Jr., near Stony Point. He was a man who was well-liked by all who knew him, and had many friends here and elsewhere who sincerely regret his passing away.

Mr. Bedford is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Lillie Martin, of this county, his mother, Mrs. Maria Bedford, of the city, and three brothers, H. Clay Bedford, and Geo. Bedford, of Paris, and Hume Bedford, who is now in the chemical service of the Government at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The pall-bearers were Ben Fowler, Chas. W. Heck, Brooks Clay, Alfred Clay, Brutus Clay and Dr. William Kenney.

LATONIA MEETING WILL LIKELY CONTINUE TO NOV. 30.

With a continuation of the remarkably and almost unprecedented fine weather that has favored the Latonia Jockey Club during the first part of its autumn meeting it is reasonably certain that the season will be prolonged until Saturday, November 30, thus affording the race patrons sixteen days of racing instead of the ten days' session that would terminate the meeting Saturday, November 23.

From the present outlook it would appear that there is no obstacle in the way of accomplishing this, unless it be a decided change in weather conditions toward the end of the present week. However, horsemen and race-goers can rest assured that General Manager John Hachmeister will have the meeting continued to the latter date if such a step is at all possible. Inasmuch as the Kentucky State Racing Commission's rules prescribe that there be no racing in the State after December 1, and prior to April 1, Mr. Hachmeister would be within his rights in keeping the meeting going to November 30.

The meeting so far has been one of the best in the track's history, and this despite the rather pessimistic outlook prior to the opening due to the postponements, and the very late date in finally getting the season started. Manager Hachmeister is accordingly greatly encouraged, and is going to redouble his efforts to give the club's patrons an even better grade of racing the remaining days of the meeting.

B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, Agts

$2,000,000 FIRE IN WEST VIRGINIA TOWN.

Fire totally destroyed the Elkins Box Company's plant at Elkins, W. Va., with an estimated loss of $200,000. The flames were discovered at 8 o'clock and although the fire fighters made valiant efforts to conquer the blaze, the plant was entirely destroyed before 11 o'clock.

An explosion of dust in a pipe which carried shavings from the works is thought to have started the fire.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

The Paris Realty Co. recently closed a deal by which they disposed of a tract of thirty-five acres of land on the North Middletown and Little Rock pike, belonging to W. I. Deering, to Clayton Curtis, of Little Rock, for $4,000.

Col. George D. Speakes, of the real estate firm of Harris & Speakes, of Paris, rented Saturday for Price Tudor, of Madison county, a tract of eight and three-quarters of land, lying near Richmond, for $805.

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney makes the following report of the sale held yesterday by Mr. George K. Jones, administrator of the estate of Wm. Mason: Horses sold from $100 to $176 per head; cows, $100 a head; sow and pigs, $68; fat hogs, $42.50 per head; corn in field, $6.50 per shock; fodder, 55c per shock; farming implements sold well.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

Information comes from Washington that the censorship of news will be lifted and that George Creel's Bulletin will be discontinued at the end of the present month. But why waste good white paper, till then? The Bulletin, like the Congressional Record, never was a worth a tinker's dam anyway, and if it were well to be done, it were well to be done quickly!
